

Application

College of Education and Human Development

Lift High Foundation Future Teacher Certification Exam Fund

The Lift High Foundation Future Teacher Certification Exam Fund was established to assist in paying for teacher certification examination fees for students pursuing an education degree in the College of Education at Texas A&M University. Students can apply to the fund by completing the information below and submitting this application to a departmental academic advisor or to the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Academic Affairs.

Name: _____ UIN: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Major: _____ FASFA on file: _____

First time test taker: _____ Amount Requested: _____

Tests being taken: _____

Description of need:

Documentation: Attach any documentation that will assist in assessing need.

Honor Statement: By signing this form, I indicate that all statements I have made on this form are true and accurate. I also indicate that I have exhausted all university and other resources prior to making this request.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Guidelines for Administering the Lift High Foundation Future Teacher

Certification Exam Fund

- Open to all CEHD students pursuing teacher certification to help with exam fees
- Need-based
- Need should be one that cannot be addressed or addressed in a timely manner by existing programs administered by Student Financial Aid
- Need should be one that cannot be addressed or addressed in a timely manner by other universities, family, or personal resources
- Request for consideration should be in writing and should be presented to a departmental advisor or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
- Review of request will be conducted electronically by 1 advisor from each department and 1 representative from the Associate Dean's office
- This is awarded through the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid as a scholarship. Any outstanding balances on your account with Student Business Services will be deducted from this award.
- Students must be currently enrolled.